A NIGHT AT THE LIBRARY: A CELEBRATION OF LOCAL AUTHORS

On February 6, 2015, from 6:00 - 9:00 PM, Friends of the Coronado Public Library will present a fun and social evening with authors of Coronado at the annual fundraiser. We invite you to meet and mingle with our local authors, who have gathered for the first time ever to meet YOU!

Tickets are $50.00 per person and include hosted food, wine and beer, as well as a $10.00 certificate to Second Hand Prose, the Friends' Gently Used Book Store.

FEATURED AUTHORS

Jennifer Bates (Franks)	Joyce Chapman	Mary Ellen Cortellini
Leslie Crawford	Sue Crum	Mary Beth Dodson
Christine Donovan	Judy Eby	Christian Esquevin
Cornelia Feye	George Galdorisi	Ann Goodfellow
Jerry Greenspan	John Hermann	Don Hubbard
Belinda Jones	Carl Luna	Laura McNeal
Barbara McNally	Tamara Merrill	Jane Mitchell
Ted Nulty	Jill O'Connor	Elizabeth Pentland
Tania Pryputhiewicz	Raye Ringholz	Ira Spector
Victoria Treadwell		Cindy Van Rooy

This fun and interesting evening will include: Food and Drink, Ongoing Raffles (entry included in ticket), Library Technology Seminars, Silent Auction.

Each year the Friends contribute over $50,000.00 to the Coronado Library for, among other things, summer and holiday programs, the Brown Bag Piano Recitals, Junior Volunteer activities, computer programs for children and adults and the very popular collections of DVDs, CDs, Books on Tape, and Take Away recordings we all enjoy. The Friends also fund many special gifts to the Coronado Library such as the beautiful Alfredo Ramos Martinez "Canasta de Flores" mural and the fabulous Steinway piano, both of which have taken our Coronado Library to a whole new level of service to our community.

We look forward to seeing you on this special evening!
